

The airwaves are owned by the public. Community low powered FM serves local communities and public interest. It needs to exist.